Hi Ketrina

Please use the same canned response I just suggested in my earlier email for this second contact us submission.

Thanks,
Beth

Question: WHO IS WASTING $133 MILLION of Oahu Rail Tax Money?

Mayor cites cost of rail delay - HonAd January 27, 2010

Delaying Honolulu's planned elevated commuter rail project could cost the city an additional $200 million a year, Mayor Mufi Hannemann said yesterday.

Hannemann contends Lingle opposes rail - StarBull Jan 27, 2010

"We have not seen or heard any show stoppers."

"Every step along the way, she (Gov. Lingle) has been presenting roadblocks," Hannemann charged at a news conference.

Hannemann said a year in delays for rail would cost the city $200 million.

Honolulu rail-transit schedule slips again - HonAd Sunday, February 21, 2010

Wayne Yoshioka, director of the city Department of Transportation, said the report is "99.5 percent done," although concerns regarding the protection of historical sites near Pearl Harbor and the system's alignment are still being addressed.

MUFFY MATH: $200 MILLION Divided by 12 = $16.6 MILLION a MONTH!

MUFFY's INCOMPETENT BULLY BS and EIS BUNGLING will cost Oahu Residents $133.3 Million By August 1, 2010!
